I see trees of green, red roses too I see them bloom for me and you And I think to myself what a wonderful world.

I see skies of blue and clouds of white The bright blessed day, the dark sacred night And I think to myself what a wonderful world.

The colors of the rainbow so pretty in the sky
Are also on the faces of people going by
I see friends shaking hands saying how do you do
They're really saying I love you.

I hear babies crying, I watch them grow They'll learn much more than I'll never know And I think to myself what a wonderful world Yes, I think to myself what a wonderful world.

SAINT MICHAEL'S COLLEGE

Office of the Hillton

June 17, 2003

To my fellow classmates:

It is with mixed emotions that I present to you the 2003 edition of The Hilltop. Since 1947, Saint Michael's College seniors have been honored through the pages of a Yearbook. The editor of the first Saint Michael's yearbook wrote "in the pages that follow we attempt to depict something of the atmosphere which surrounds the campus and to indicate the transition that is taking place from the old Saint Michael's to the new." Now, in 2003, I continue in that same vein.

Very special thanks go to all who assisted with the creation of this book. The staff members pictured on the following page dedicated countless hours and volunteered their time freely to help create a yearbook that will be treasured by our class for years to come.

I hope that this volume of the Hilltop serves as a tool, assisting with the recollection of the important people and events that helped shape your time here at Saint Michael's College. Photographs allow our minds to travel backward through time to experience, again, the joy, the laughter, the drama, the elation and the excitement of being a college student. Always hold these memories close to your heart, and never forget those who helped mold you into the person you are today.

I wish you the very best of luck, Class of 2003. Always live life to the fullest, and treasure every moment. No matter where your journey takes you, once in a while take this yearbook off the bookshelf, wipe the dust off the cover, and spend a few moments back at Saint Michael's as a college student once again.

The Graduating Class of 2003 Dedicates the 2003 Hilltop to

Reverend Marcel R. Rainville, S.S.E

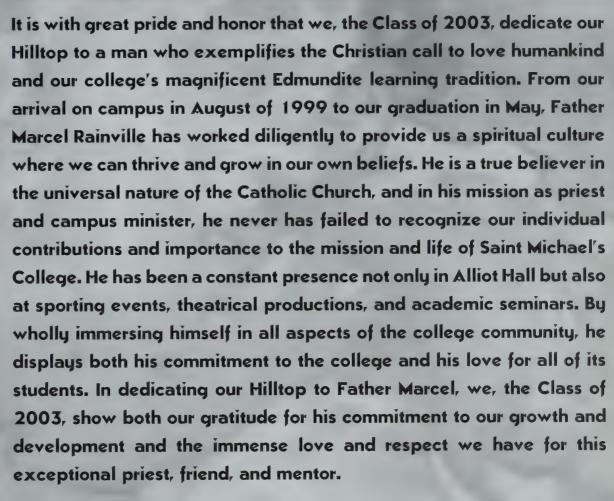

"Fr. Marcel exemplifies the charisma of the Society of Saint Edmund and Saint Michael's College. Besides his role as Director of Campus Ministry, his involvements include the LEAP and Emmaus retreats, Chaplain of the hockey team and many other activities that show a deep commitment to the students at Saint Michael's. In my four years here, Fr. Marcel has been a role model and a friend."

From the President

SAINT MICHAEL'S COLLEGE

Office of the President

May 1, 2003

To the Class of 2003:

First and foremost, it is with great pleasure that I congratulate the members of the Class of 2003 on their many achievements, made possible by their hard work, commitment to learning, supportive relationships with each other and a genuine desire to succeed.

I also wish to express my appreciation to the faculty and staff of Saint Michael's for their dedication to the College and the Class of 2003. Their involvement with the Class has contributed greatly to the lifelong process of your education. In turn, staff and faculty have benefited from your presence during the past four years. This volume of the Hilltop will always be a positive reminder of and tribute to our shared experiences and the contributions of those departed from the Saint Michael's College campus.

It is my hope that your time here at Saint Michael's will continue to enrich your lives far into the future. You have my best wishes for success in all your endeavors. Congratulations!

Sincerely,

luar randerfeyor Marc A. vanderHeyden President

MOVE Extended Service Trips

Instead of spending spring break on the beach or sleeping in, over 100 students decided to spend spring break helping others. Students went to Kentucky, Selma, New York City, Baltimore, Washington D.C., Texas, Hartford, New Orleans, and Florida to spend their week building houses, tutoring, working in soup kitchens, working in food pantries, doing environmental work, mentoring youth, and building great new friendships.

Senior Address

"You know, when I was asked to speak here

today I froze up. What can you say to your college class that is in any way meaningful and not boring? I knew I was in for it when Jenn Donahue told me, "don't get up there and say anything involving 'it was the best of times, it was the worst of times.'" But then it came to me. It's all about Roger Clemens.

My 11-year-old sister, Laura, is probably the biggest Yankees fan you will ever meet - and she hates Roger Clemens. A few weeks ago while Clemens was pitching, Laura was up in front of the TV yelling, "does anyone else see this, is anyone else paying attention?!" I thought, it's just a game, so sit down and eat your chips. But you know, I can't even count the number of times I've had the same reaction to what's going on around me.

HELLO! IS ANYONE ELSE SEEING THIS!

And I realized - baseball is life.

There are times in life when you have to stand up all alone - all eyes on you - and if you don't swing, you just stand there, and the score remains zero. Jackie Robinson once told Hank Aaron - baseball is a game you play every day, not just once a week. Clemens may be a bum - and of all the other bums in your life you may encounter, no matter how powerful they are, don't be afraid to can the pitcher who won't help your team win.

How often have you, in your four years here, been at a party and the chant, "Yankees Suck" begins? That's what I thought. We can learn a lot from this little Yankees/Sox rivalry - the Yankees win a lot and also buy up any talent they need. And the Sox - the Sox are losers - they haven't won a World Championship since 1918, but they keep on trying, and we keep asking, "what are the Sox going to look like this year?," oh, and the "Yankees Suck!"

Forget Robert Frost - Yogi Berra said, "if you come to a fork in the road - take it." You have to be ready to steal second, slide into home, swing when the pitch is too high and cover first when needed. Think about a baseball - each lace is placed perfectly, and together they keep the cover from coming off. If one lace is even a little out of place, that curveball may not break and slug you upside the head. You may get to walk - but your head might hurt for a while.

Let me give you some advice - go for the homerun.

And don't just watch it slide over the fence - hit it running.

And so, looking out at all of you, I have to say that this is the best team I've ever been a part of. We've learned from and inspired each other. We've supported each other when the run home just seemed too long and the third base coach was telling us to hold up - but we wanted to score.

They say that the last out is the hardest one - and I have a feeling this may be it.

I'm honored to stand here today and say good-bye to you all. I offer this as a first pitch in honor of the game to come, the best game we may ever play.

Good luck, congratulations, and above all, play ball."

Clubs

The Cycling Club

The Cycling Club is designed to give competitive cyclists the opportunities to race in collegiate mountain bike, cyclocross and road races. The club also tries to involve students who want to ride recreationally or simply learn more about the sport. Thanks to the Student Association's financial support, members are able to ride, race and organize other activities at minimal costs.

WWPV

WWPV has had one of its best years yet, consistently having quality programming and the best group of DIs ever. They've sponsored four shows for the community over the past four months including the Seth Yacovone Band, Raq. The Static Age, and 30 Stones. Recently, the SA has purchased a new FM processor for WWPV which allows for louder and crisper broadcasts. WWPV also had success with its web cast, which is available at http://personalweb.smcyt.edu/wwpy.

Rugby

The Computer Science Club, a collection of computer enthusiasts who wished to pursue their interests beyond the curricular offerings of the Computer Science Department, enjoyed a successful year with several visiting lecturers, a few cookouts, and its annual Programming Contest.

Ally

The Ally group is dedicated to protecting and promoting the rights and human dignity of all individuals. Ally members believe that all people have the right to enjoy open lives free from harm and/or discrimination, and that each of us is personally responsible for doing what we can to make this possible. Ally works to educate the Saint Michael's community on issues that affect the gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender and questioning community as well their friends and families. Ally does this by sponsoring speakers, panel discussions, workshops, as well as other activities. Issues that such activities and speakers address include homophobia, coming out, dealing with sexuality and its repercussions, and AIDS/HIV. This year the efforts of the Ally group brought to campus such speakers as Real World New Orleans. Danny Roberts and Roman Catholic Bishop Thomas Gumbleton.

Sleepless Knights

The Founder's Society

The Founder's Society works with the Admissions Office and the Office of Alamni and Parent Relations to provide Information to prospective students and networking opportunities for current students. Their major activities include giving tours, calling accepted students, and hosting accepted students. Chances are provided for current students to meet working alumni in order to establish connections to assist with finding jobs after graduation. The Founder's Society gives students a chance to be leaders and ambassadors in the Saint Michael's community.

The Men's team played against some tough teams this season, going into OT in many games. However, this young team worked hard together, both on and off of the field. They look forward to some great seasons to follow! Dustin Hees stated, "As frustrating as this season may have been record wise, this was by far the most talented, motivated, and enjoyable group of players I played with during my four years at St. Mikes."

Congratulations

2002 NE-10 Co-Champs!

SMC Field Hockey had another fantastic season! The women showed their commitment, motivation and desire to take to the field for practices and games for the entire season. Each player contributed so much to the overall success of the season. Jess Brown said, "We are a team that has proven to be one of the powerhouses of Division II Field Hockey year after year. It was an amazing team, season and experience".

The Saint Michael's Volleyball team had an exciting start of the 2002 season with the most wins since 1995. An unfortunate series of injuries and illness in the second half of the season slowed us down, but the future is very bright for our young, but expanded team. The team was led by Junior co-captains Katie Herb and Heather Frame and aided considerably by the talented defense of Sophomore Stephanie Robbins, who finished six in the country for digs per game in NCAA Division II. With lots of young talent emerging, like Freshman Katie Ouellette, who was one of the leading blockers in the conference, the team is both proud of their accomplishments this year and enthusiastic about the future.

Women's Cross Country

These talented runners kept up and exceeded the expectations of their competitors. Women's Cross Country placed well in their division and Saint Michael's was represented well by these wonderful women. Thank you to all of the Seniors who gave so much to the team's motivation, leadership and committeental The rest of the team is looking forward to an even stronger 2003 season with many students returning. Check them out?

Women's Roster: Katie Collins, Jamie Deacon, Kristen Dinsbach, Carolyn Dube, Kim Fahner, Anne Garrett, Courtney Kelley, Julie Kelley, Mary Lake, Catherine Lecuyer, Emily Lyford, Lynn McConnell, Erin McDonnell, Meghan O'Connor, Rachel Russo, Kathryn Rutkowski, Jordan Smith, Casey Story and Erin Tanzer. Candids

"You've got to fight for your right to party"

"Don't grow up.

Growing up means giving up your dreams:"

"I never think of the future.

It comes soon enough."

- Albert Einstein

168 Candids

"I am now convinced that your future lies behind you.if you do not know where you have been, how can you possibly know where you are going?"

- Ken Burns

Now you are free. Tree of the pressure of exams. Gree to begin the next stage of your life. And free to pay back your student loans."

170 Candids

"There is no greater enemy than one's own fears:"

- Martok to Worf Star Trek Deep Space Nine

"Believe in love. Believe in magic.

Hell, believe in Santa Claus."

- Jon Bon Jovi

"The fireworks begin today. Each diploma is a lighted match. Each one of you is a fuse."

- Ed Koch

"You stand at a boundary...You stand between whatever binds you to your past and whatever might be unbounded by your future."

- Seamus Heaney

174 Candids

We have to believe that someday, somehow, some way, it will be better, and that we can make it so."

- Hubert Humphrey

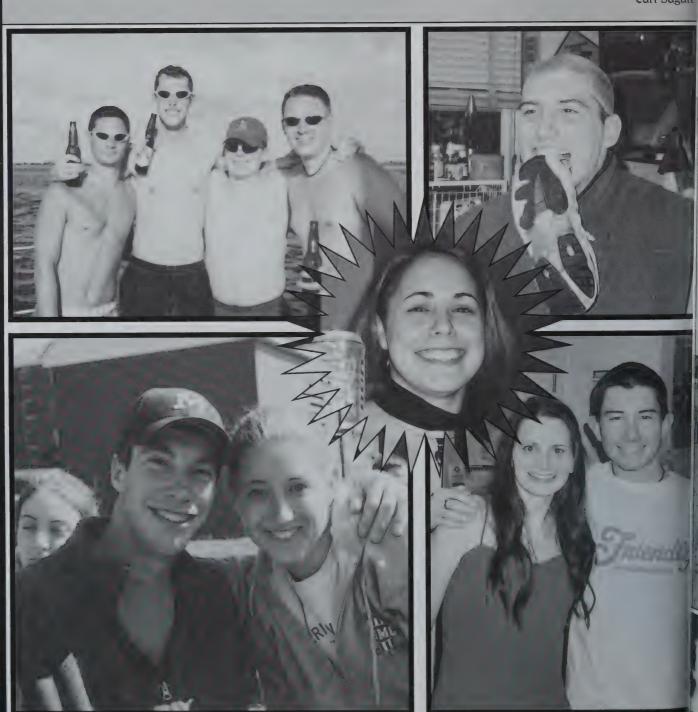

"Do not sit this one out. Do not play it safe. Make our society better. Make a world worthy of the children that your generation will bear."

- Carl Sagan

"It's not who we are that holds us back.

It's who we think we're not:"

- Michael Nolan

- Dido

"I want to thank you for giving me
the best day of my life."

178 Candids

"Go out, grab hold of the world, and make a difference. And in doing so, take care to touch gently the face of your fellow man. For that will make the greatest difference of all."

- Tommy Thompson

ERIN KYLENE BLAKE

Dear Erin.

God graced us with a happy and beautiful baby who has grown into an intelligent. vibrant, and beautiful young woman blessed with integrity and kindness of heart. You once told us, "You can not command respect. You have to earn it." Remember all that you have learned. Congratulations and stay out of harm's way as you travel to distant lands. We are so proud of you!

All our love.

I just want to say thank you to all of you who have made such a difference in my life during these past four years. Hopefully, you know who you are. It's hard to come to such a transition, especially when these four years have been so amazing. I will truly miss you. You will always be in my thoughts and prayers, and I hope that someday we will once again meet along life's road.

Peace, God Bless and Good Luck!

To Our Special Gift, Jessica Marie,

Back in March when we received the notice to place an advertisment in the 2003 Saint Michael's Yearbook I thought, this will be a relatively easy task. Yet with each passing day as I attempted to sit down and put into words what we wanted to say, I realized that this was not the case.

When you came into our lives we thought we knew how truly blessed we were. God had given us the little girl that we had always wanted. To your father you will always be "his little cone head", to me "meaty mush."

We have seen you grow and meet the challenges that you have faced. We know that there have been times when you taught us a thing or two. The love and patience you showed to your "great grandparents," the "seedless grape story", the games of checkers played at 10:25! The fast asleep at 10:01 when the "car alarm" activated and you knew we were home; the joy and honor I felt as you "carried up the gifts" at Regina, something I had wanted to do when I was a child. How many times did you run and greet "Poppy" as he came home from work? Who can forget the "little Girl and Grandpa Ricky"? Has he ever won a card game when he played against you? Do you remember the blanket that Grandma Julie made for you while you were in Pre-K?

Endless summers at Highland Lakes and sleepovers with your friends. Need I remind you of the mystery sound that later turned out to be "Buttons"? Was it not yesterday that you finally jumped into the lake without your "nose plugs"? How many fish had you caught while your father was still baiting his line to cast? Are you sure all you did was pass out the "snack foods" while Grandma and her friends played cards? Lifeguard Olympics, lost eyeglasses, Mrs. Hastie and friends.

Is that Matthew ringing our doorbell for you to come out and play? Who is that "guy with the waist length hair" coming to take you to the dance? JP, Billy Joel and the New York Mets...how can we forget "Rent"? Do we have to listen to that CD again, your father screams! You are talking on the phone, to Anthony? YMCA Anthony? The joys of watching you perform at "Carnegie Hall!" The first time your Varsity Softball Team won a Game! Lutheran Church, Pre-K, PS127, PS176, Regina Pacis, Florida Union Free, Montclair State, ARMY ROTC and Saint Michael's!

Shopping for your Wedding Dress last year, love and support from Katie, Jenn, Cousin Sue and the two "Lynn's." Walking you down the aisle last August as you and Anthony became husband and wife. Now your Graduation from Saint Michael's.

We are so proud of you and all that you have accomplished. Continue to strive for what you want in life and know that it is all within your reach, if you want to work for it. May God continue to Bless and guide you as you begin the next chapter of your life. No matter where you go or what you do you will always have a special place in our hearts, prayers and life. We want to thank God for Blessing us with a truly Special Lady who we call "our daughter."

Love always, Mom & Dad May 11, 2003

A Touch of Love

You were six months old and full of fun. With a blink of my eye, you suddenly were one. There were so many things we were going to do, But I turned my head and you turned two. At two, you were very dependent on me, But independence took over when you turned three, Your third birthday, another year I tried to ignore, But when I lit the candles, there weren't three, but four. Four was the year that you really strived, Why, look at you now, you're already five. Now you are ready for books and rules. This is the year that you go to school. The big day came; you were anxious to go. We walked to the bus, going oh so slow. As you climbed aboard and waved goodbye, I felt a lump in my throat and tears stung my eyes Time goes so fast, it's hard to believe That just uesterday you were home here, with me, And tomorrow when the bus brings you home

And you jump to the ground,
You'll be wearing your cap and graduation gown.
So I'm holding on to these moments as hard as I can,
Because the next time I look,
I'll be seeing a grown man.

Toni Marie

We are so very proud of your accomplishments at Saint Michaels. Your determination, your dedication, and your compassion will certainly lead you to success in all that you do. You are the most industrious young lady that we know. That is why you will attain those dreams and plans that you have for your future. Most importantly, we are so very proud of the person that you are internally - the goodness, the generosity, the warmth, and the caring that you demonstrate towards others. You are a very special person to us.

As you begin your next journey, find your dreams and make them come true. Learn from your mistakes, as well as your successes. Keep things always in their proper perspectives. Remember, Toni Marie, you are the master of your dreams, and what you are is God's gift to you. What you will become is your gift to God. Listen to your heart and you will hear us cheering for you. We will always be there for you.

Mike,

We always knew you would be successful at whatever you chose to do. Four years ago you wrote an essay that said, "being at college is an accomplishment in leadership, albeit one I share with about five hundred other people my same age. This is a first step, a starting block to what I hope will be a life leading others. From here I hope to begin a successful military career. I hope to gain an education with which I could gain access to other areas of civil service." You had a vision and you are following through with your hopes and dreams and have a bright future ahead of you. Mike, we are extremely proud of you for working hard to meet your goals, and we love you very much.

Congratulations!
